Continue your journey towards Sigiriya. On the journey from Negombo, notice the transition from bustling roads to flat terrain stretching for miles as the climate gradually warms up. Take in the captivating drive through the green paddy fields and observe how the weather becomes warmer as you enter the dry zone.

After the climb, return to your hotel for breakfast and enjoy a leisurely late morning and early afternoon, with time to relax by the pool and enjoy the hotel.

Later in the afternoon, head out on a 4WD safari in Minneriya National Park, one of Sri Lanka’s best-known locations for seeing Asian elephants in the wild.

During the dry season, generally from June to early October, elephants are drawn towards the Minneriya reservoir and its surrounding grasslands as other water sources begin to dry up. July to September is particularly famous for the Elephant Gathering, when large herds of elephants can sometimes be seen congregating around the reservoir to feed, drink and socialise.

Alongside elephants, you may also encounter monkeys, deer, water buffalo, crocodiles and a wide variety of birdlife.

” This UNESCO World Heritage Site features a series of stunning cave temples adorned with intricate murals and statues of Buddha, dating back to the 1st century BC. Explore these ancient caves and marvel at the impressive frescoes and sculptures that capture the rich history and religious significance of the area. “

Leaving the flat terrain of Sigiriya behind, your journey towards Kandy takes you gradually into the hills. As you drive through the Matale region, you’ll notice the landscape shift from the dry zone to the wetter hill country, with thicker vegetation and terraced paddy fields replacing the open plains. The air becomes cooler and the scenery more lush as the road winds upward.

As you approach Kandy, the streets become livelier — a reminder that this is the cultural heart of Sri Lanka’s hill country. It’s a city filled with old colonial and heritage buildings, surrounded by higher mountains that rise above the town.

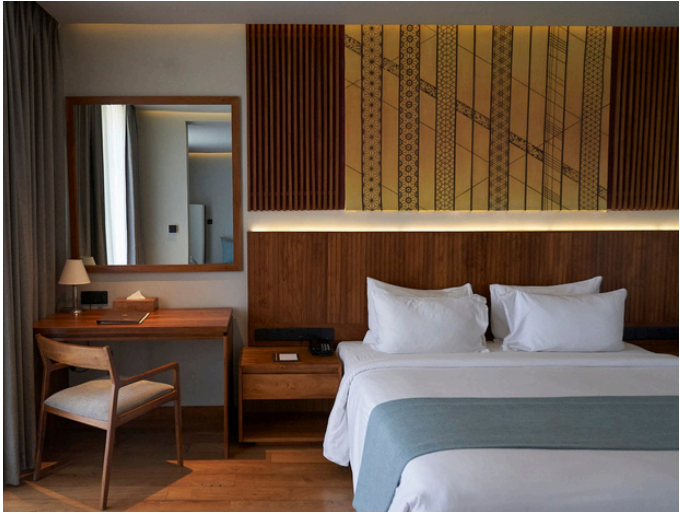

In the evening, take a walk or a short drive into Kandy to explore the Temple of the Sacred Tooth Relic (Dalada Maligawa) and wander through the old town.

” A UNESCO World Heritage Site located within the royal palace complex in Kandy. This revered temple houses the sacred relic of Lord Buddha’s tooth, a symbol of Sri Lanka’s deep spiritual heritage. Explore its richly decorated interiors, witness the daily rituals performed by monks, and immerse yourself in the serene atmosphere of one of Buddhism’s most important pilgrimage sites. “

If you visit during pooja time — usually held at 6:30 – 8.00 pm — you can experience the traditional drumming and daily rituals inside the temple, offering a meaningful glimpse into Kandy’s religious traditions.

- 1st Class: Air-conditioned, reserved seating, and quieter.

From this high point, the journey gradually descends through spectacular hill country scenery. The central figure is a tall standing Buddha, surrounded by smaller statues of Bodhisattvas and other deities, all carved into a cliff face. The site is quiet and surrounded by nature—offering a peaceful glimpse into Sri Lanka's spiritual past.

Arrive in Yala by the afternoon and check in to your safari lodge.

In the late afternoon, head out on an evening safari in Yala National Park. This is one of the best times of day to spot wildlife, as the temperature cools and animals become more active. The soft golden light also makes the landscape especially beautiful, creating great conditions for photography. Keep an eye out for elephants, sloth bears, deer, birdlife, and—if you're lucky—the Sri Lankan leopard.

"Yala, spreading across 1268 sq. km of scrub forests, grassy plains and brackish lagoons, is undoubtedly one of the hottest regions of bio-diversity in the island boasting of an abundance of Sri Lankan Leopard, Elephants and Sloth Bear, often known as Sri Lanka's Big Three! Flanked by herds of wild boar, spotted deer, jackals, peacock and crocodiles the park has a whole bundle of wilderness on offer.
