Surrounded by peaceful rural landscapes and village life, the lake offers beautiful views toward both Sigiriya Rock and Pidurangala Rock rising dramatically in the distance. From this high point, the journey gradually descends through spectacular hill country scenery. Your chauffeur will drop you at the station and then drive to Ella with your luggage, so you can simply relax and enjoy the ride with a small day bag.

Your stay this evening is at EKHO Ella, a hillside hotel perched high above Ella Gap with panoramic views across the surrounding mountain landscapes. The core of the building was originally a British colonial-era Circuit Bungalow, built by the Public Works Department to accommodate colonial administrators, surveyors, and tea planters travelling through Sri Lanka’s central highlands. Today, the property retains its historic hill-country charm while enjoying one of the most iconic viewpoints in Ella.

Later in the afternoon, enjoy a relaxed guided walk to the famous Nine Arches Bridge. Surrounded by dense jungle and tea plantations, this beautifully constructed colonial-era railway bridge has become one of Sri Lanka’s most photographed landmarks.
